

Chilly Weather, Chili Cook off!

January 27th, 2017 3pm-5pm

Guidelines for Chili Chefs:

- All chili chefs planning to provide chili for judging will need to register by midnight on 1/24/2018. Registration can be done in person, online or over the phone. Limited to the first 14 chefs.
- All chili chefs should arrive at the community center between 1:30 and 2:30pm.
- All chili chefs are required to provide a minimum of one standard size crockpot of chili and serving spoon for competition.
- The park district will provide a table for every 2 chefs. (8 foot wooden table divided evenly among the 2 chefs, essentially a 4 foot space).
- Chefs can decorate their table space to add to their presentation. Chefs can also add garnishments to finished chili samples.
- This competition is meant for amateur chefs and recipes; please do not endorse any organization or business as a competitor.
- Please clearly indicate if your chili is sweet, mild, or spicy so that participants can decide if they are interested.
- The park district will provide traditional chili sides, napkins, cups and spoons for the taste testers.
- The chef that gets the most votes for crowd favorite chili will win the “Cheesy Chili Trophy”. Taste Testers can submit their ballots until 4:30pm (each cup of chili comes with a ballot).

Voting:

- Each cup will come with a ballot to vote on each competition category.
- Taste testers can buy as many cups as they would like.
- Volunteers each get 3 cups/ballots and can purchase any beyond that.
- Each cup is $1 and 100% of the proceeds go to the “Bellbrook-Sugarcreek Family Resource Center”.

Competition: In addition to the top overall “Cheesy Chili Trophy” we will also have some fun awards for participating.

- “The Sprinter” award – The chili chef who runs out of chili the fastest.
- “The Ice Breaker” award – The chili chef that goes out of their way to get noticed.
- “Meet My Parents” award – The chili chef that should be a personal chef. “Wow that’s so good! Please come make my family dinner tonight and every night”.
- “Secret’s Safe With Me” award – What is that flavor?! Interesting unknown flavor that had everyone talking and wondering, but just like a magician a good chef never tells their secrets.
